

REACH! Children's Chorus

With an award-winning Director, children 7-13 years develop outstanding vocal and performance skills, gain confidence and new friends, and have fun in the process. They also make a positive difference in the community, performing uplifting songs for special events and shows including Human Solidarity Day.

WHO WE ARE

REACH! Children's Chorus is a program of West Coast Reach Association, a registered non-profit organization and charity celebrating diversity and inclusion, and utilizing the performing arts to empower, connect and inspire.

Suggested fees:

$100 (January-June)

PLEASE NOTE: Fees are kept low to make this program accessible to all. Further subsidy may also be available.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Originally from the Caribbean and trained at the Royal Academy of Music in England, Anne-Marie Brimacombe is an award-winning singer, music teacher, choral director and show producer. Her husband, Peter, also provides many of the musical accompaniments for the group. More detailed bios can be found on our REACH! website.
